
Highett Cricket Club
U12s Recruitment flyer

What age should Under 12 cricketers be?	Boys, 9-11 years old on September 1st 2004 Girls, 9-13 years old on September 1st, 2004 (2004 – 2005 Season) Once you turn 9 years old, you can play, so if you turn 9 on December 1st, for example, you can play your first game on December 1st
Training Time?	Wednesday afternoons from 4:30 – 6:00pm including School Holidays. Training Began in September 2004
Where is Training?	Highett Cricket Club Main Oval and Mail Oval Cricket Nets Turner Road, Highett Club Location: Melways Reference Map 77 H9
Matches	Saturday Mornings. Home ground is Cheltenham Secondary College, Bernard Street, Cheltenham
And match times	Saturdays: One day Matches: 8:15am -11:45am Two day Matches: 8:15am -11:45am Players usually meet at the Highett Cricket Club an Hour beforehand for a headcount and arranging lifts. At the Completion of matches, a B-B-Q is held for players at the Highett Cricket Club for those who would like to attend.
The first Match	The first match is on Saturday, October 9th 2004
The Cost?	$60.00 for the entire season, including practises
Cricket Gear/Equipment	This season, the club has purchased more pads, helmets, gloves and protectors to go with existing equipment, including bats. Players are not required to have their own equipment as the club kitbag contain all necessary gear. We do recommend that players purchase their own protector, ($4-$6 in sport Shops)
What to wear?	Runners, (predominantly white). Long pants, preferably, shirt with collar, socks and a hat or cap. – All of these, predominantly white. No clothing requirements are rigorously enforced until late in the season at finals time. Highett Cricket Club has hats and caps with Highett Logs for Sale.

Our Senior and Junior coaches are Level One Accredited Coaches recognised by the Australian Cricket Board. Our Clubrooms are smoke free. We have a Sun Smart Policy and a Current public Liability and Player Insurance Policy.

OUR MAIN AIM IS TO GIVE EACH JUNIOR PLAY A FAIR GO AND HAVE FUN!!