

A SPORT FOR ALL Awards

2019–20

A NOTE FROM ANDREW INGLETON

Cricket is full of people and organisations who work hard to ensure our game celebrates diversity and inclusion.

We want to recognise these community cricket champions who contribute to making cricket A Sport For All Victorians.

This is the third year for the A Sport For All Awards – Victoria. The award categories have been redesigned and we are excited to share these celebrations with you all again.

This year, we are celebrating cricket heroes in new categories such as Young Leader of the Year and Women and Girls Initiative of the Year. Not only will there be new categories, the Volunteer of the Year award will be chosen from the winners on the night.

The awards recognise those in our cricket community who embrace and support diversity and inclusive practices at all levels of the game.

We look forward to receiving more nominations this season and celebrating the achievements and hard work of those who contribute to growing our game.

ANDREW INGLETON

CEO | CRICKET VICTORIA

JEREMEY BYRNE

COMMUNITY COACH OF THE YEAR 2018/19

After moving to Ballarat, Jeremey Byrne wasted no time becoming a prominent figure in Ballarat's cricketing community. His innate ability to build strong relationships with his players, other coaches and all members of the local cricket community, saw him thrive during the 2018/19 season.

Amazingly Jeremy held three different cricket coaching roles and various other volunteer roles in the 2018/19 season. He coached one of Buninyong Cricket Clubs U/13 teams, the Ballarat Cricket Association U/17 representative team and the Ballarat Bolts Women's Cricket Club. Further to these roles Jeremy was the Junior Coordinator at Buninyong Cricket Club and was instrumental in assisting in the establishment of the Ballarat Bolts Women's Cricket Club and was the inaugural Vice President.

As a coach, Jeremey created an inclusive and fun environment for people of all ages and abilities. Jeremy has done an exceptional job coaching different individuals with a range of skill levels, some of which had never played the game before. Jeremey's inclusive coaching style has had outstanding outcomes for the Ballarat Bolts Women's Cricket Club, leading the side to Grand Final victory in their inaugural season.

Jeremey was a deserving winner of both the Victorian and National A Sport For All Awards last season.
